Thanit Thangpijaigul

นายธนิต ตั้งพิชัยกุล

May 22, 2009

Mr. Thanit Thangpijaigul has a successful career with the World Bank Group in Washington, DC. His responsibilities as a technology manager includes security trading technologies, trading room designs, telecommunication, real-time market information systems and disaster recovery and business continuity management. He has provided technical assistance to various central banks around the world.

Mr. Thangpijaigul has been involved in volunteering work during his free time since he came to the U. S. some thirty years ago. He helped manage the Buddhist Association in Washington DC (Wat Thai DC) for more than 25 years as the Vice President - Finance. He was part of the management team who completed the Wat Thai DC multi-purpose building during late 1990s. He implemented a financial plan to fund the construction of the multi-purpose building by borrowing interest-free funds from Wat Thai DC members, and arranged with the lending institution to use members' CDs as collaterals for a low interest construction loan to complete the building project. Funds borrowed from members were repaid within three years. Mr. Thangpijaigul joined the Thai Alliance in America (TAA) in 2004 as the Treasurer. He has successfully managed the financial affairs of TAA including two major King's Gala fund raising events.

Mr. Thangpijaigul is married and has two adult sons.
